P.C.:-

1. When called out twice in the first session as well as in the second session, the learned advocate for the applicant and the applicant are absent.

2. Having gone through the records, and having heard the learned Additional Public Prosecutor, I am of the view that no case for bail is made out.

3. One more reason for denying bail is that the trial has already begun. One witness has already been examined.

4. This application is rejected.
